

WILDLIFE: A ZEBRA DOESN'T CHANGE ITS STRIPES?

PHOTO: ANTON MARTYN

This 18-month-old zebra, in Zulu Waters Game Reserve in the Midlands, was born with irregular markings on both sides of her body. As both of her parents were born with regular zebra markings, the female's smudged stripes are a rare phenomenon.